FOO/167492

PRELIMINARY RECITALS

Pursuant to a petition filed July 24, 2015, under Wis. Admin. Code § HA 3.03(1), to review a decision by the Office of the Inspector General in regard to FoodShare benefits (FS), a hearing was held on September 24, 2015, at Green Bay, Wisconsin.

The issue for determination is whether a circuit court judgment of a violation of the welfare fraud ordinance is sufficient to impose a one-year FS sanction.

There appeared at that time and place the following persons:

FINDINGS OF FACT

1. Petitioner (CARES # [REDACTED]) is a resident of Brown County who received FS benefits in at least August of 2014.

2. Petitioner was issued a citation for violating Brown County ordinance 30.05(2), “Interfering with Proper Administration of Public Benefits” on August 3, 2014. On November 7, 2014, the Brown County Office of the Sheriff mailed the ordinance citation to the petitioner, informing him, in part, that a conviction would result in a one-year bar from receiving FS for a first violation. See Exhibit R-2.
3. After a court trial on May 16, 2015, petitioner was found guilty on violating Brown County ordinance 30.05(2), “Interfering with Proper Administration of Public Benefits”, a subsection of the ordinance entitled “Prohibiting Fraud In Public Assistance.” Exhibit R-1.
4. Petitioner had no prior program violations. Following the guilty verdict the state FS agency imposed a one-year bar on petitioner receiving FS.

DISCUSSION

7 C.F.R. §273.16(b) provides as follows:

(1) Individuals found to have committed an intentional Program violation either through an administrative disqualification hearing or by a Federal, State or local court, or who have signed either a waiver of right to an administrative disqualification hearing or a disqualification consent agreement in cases referred for prosecution, shall be ineligible to participate in the Program:

(i) For a period of twelve months for the first intentional Program violation....

Similarly, the Department’s FS Handbook, §3.14.1, provides:

An IPV may be determined by the following means:

1. Federal, state, or local court order,
2. Administrative Disqualification Hearing (ADH) decision,
3. Pre-charge or pretrial diversion agreement initiated by a local district attorney and signed by the FoodShare recipient in accordance with federal requirements, or
4. Waiver of the right to an ADH signed by the FoodShare recipient in accordance with federal requirements.

The definition of an IPV is found at 7 C.F.R. §273.16(c):

Intentional Program violations shall consist of having intentionally:

- (1) Made a false or misleading statement, or misrepresented, concealed or withheld facts;
or
- (2) Committed any act that constitutes a violation of the Food Stamp Act, the Food Stamp Program Regulations, or any State statute for the purpose of using, presenting, transferring, acquiring, receiving, possessing or trafficking of coupons, authorization cards or reusable documents used as part of an automated benefit delivery system (access device).

The sanction is only against the individual found guilty. Other family members remain eligible for FS.

The issue is whether the Brown County judgment of a violation of the welfare fraud ordinance is sufficient to impose a one-year sanction. I conclude that it is sufficient. The federal regulation provides that a sanction can be imposed based upon the judgment of a local court. The charge against petitioner was that he intentionally violated FS rules in the use of his card. See, Exhibit R-2. The definition of a program violation is that the person committed any act that violates program regulations in using, presenting, transferring, acquiring, receiving, or trafficking FS. The guilty verdict by a Brown County judge following a trial, where the petitioner was represented by counsel, is sufficient to meet that standard. In light of the guilty verdict, I conclude that the respondent properly imposed a one-year sanction.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

The OIG correctly imposed a one-year FS sanction against petitioner following a Brown County court judgement that he violated an FS fraud ordinance.
